3.2.7 Pay equity review

3.2.7.1 As required by section 13ZH(3)(viii) of the Equal Pay Act 1972, the parties have agreed a process for reviewing the remuneration of therapists covered by the therapists pay equity claim settlement to ensure pay equity is maintained. Ensuring pay equity is maintained involves reviewing remuneration to determine whether there is differentiation on the basis of sex as set out in s2AAC(b) of the Act present in the workforce and, if there is, taking steps to remove the differentiation.

3.2.7.2 Reviews will apply to all employees in roles covered by the therapists pay equity claim settlement. The union agrees that the interests of all employees covered by that pay equity claim settlement will be advanced in the review process.

3.2.7.3 The process for reviewing the remuneration to ensure pay equity is maintained will be:

Reviews will align with the bargaining round of each relevant collective agreement (Field Staff Collective Agreement, the Kaiārahi i te Reo and Therapists' Collective Agreement, and the Primary Teachers' Collective Agreement).

However, if two or more relevant collective agreements are due to expire no more than 6 months apart, one review will be undertaken aligned with the collective bargaining round of the first expiring relevant collective agreement.

The parties will meet six months prior to the expiry of each collective agreement (or if (b) applies, six months prior to the expiry date of the first expiring collective agreement) to commence the review.

The parties will review and analyse any changes in the comparator remuneration that have occurred since the pay equity claim settlement and/or since the last review, as well as any other matters they consider relevant, such as changes to the Labour Cost Index and Consumer Price Index, and Treasury forecast of labour movement.

The parties will jointly determine if there is differentiation on the basis of sex present in the workforce, and if there is, what is required to remove the differentiation and ensure that pay equity is maintained. This includes, but it is not limited to, the remuneration adjustment (if any) to ensure pay equity is maintained.

The parties will formally record in writing what is required to ensure that pay equity is maintained. This completes the review.

The parties will fully cooperate and will address all issues in a timely manner.

3.2.7.4 If the parties disagree on what is required to maintain pay equity and/or as to whether an adjustment is required, or agree that an adjustment is required but do not agree as to the value of the adjustment, then the following process will occur:

The parties will provide each other with proposed pay equity rate(s), along with an explanation as to what is proposed and why.

The parties will meet promptly to attempt to reach agreement.

In the event of no agreement, the parties agree to attend mediation in good faith using their best endeavours to resolve the outstanding matters between them. Should mediation not result in an agreement the parties may have recourse to any applicable processes provided by law to resolve their dispute.

3.2.7.5 The parties will cooperate to ensure that all employees covered by the therapists pay equity claim settlement have the opportunity to be involved in the review process. This may include, to the extent permissible by law: facilitating communications, or sharing information with the union.

Table A

PERIOD OF SERVICE	ADDITIONAL DAYS FOR EACH PERIOD

6.5.3 Service for Sick Leave Purposes for Employees Other than Therapists

For the purposes of sick leave “service” means the aggregate of:

- all full-time employment with any state or integrated school;
- part-time employment with any state or integrated school counted on the basis that 80 hours equals one month’s service or 1000 hours equals one year’s service and so on except that where part-time teaching service consists of 20 or more class contact hours per week it shall be credited as full-time service.

6.5.4 Application

The provisions of this clause regulate the application of paid sick leave under 6.5:

- Sick leave is to be debited on the basis of days of absence where absence.
- No deduction will be made for absences of less than two hours.
- An employee shall be granted, as a charge against the employee’s sick leave entitlement, leave with pay if an employee’s spouse (or partner) or a person who depends on the employee for care, is sick or injured.
- When in excess of five days sick leave is taken a medical certificate from a registered medical or dental practitioner must be produced if the employer so requires.
- The employee must inform the employer of the intention to take sick leave as early as possible before they are due to start work, or if this is not practical as early as possible after that time.
- Sick leave shall not be paid in respect of any public holiday for which the employee is entitled to full pay.

6.5A Sick Leave (from 28 January 2023)

6.5A.1 The following provisions will apply from the start of the 2023 school year, i.e. 28 January 2023, a full or part-time employee shall be entitled to sick leave on full pay on account of sickness or injury as follows:

	ENTITLEMENT	ACCUMULATED ENTITLEMENT

24 months service	10 days	60 days
30 months service	10 days	70 days
Each subsequent 12 months of completed continuous service	10 days	+10 days

6.5A.2 Employees currently employed under this Agreement will translate to the applicable entitlement based on their accumulated sick leave service as at 28 January 2023, as set out in the table at Annexe 1 of this Agreement. Employees previously employed under this Agreement who are subsequently employed in a role covered by this agreement after 28 January 2023, will translate to the applicable entitlement based on their accumulated sick leave service as at the date they ceased in their previous role, as set out in the table at Annexe 1 of this Agreement.

6.5A.3 The amount of sick leave available shall be the translated entitlement under Annexe 1 plus the accumulated entitlement set out in 6.5A.1 based on their continuous service (as defined in clause 6.2), less the aggregate total amount of paid sick leave the employee has taken.

6.5A.4 Application

Sick leave is to be deducted for the days or half days of absence.

Sick leave will not be deducted for an absence that is less than 25% of the hours normally worked on that day. An employee shall be granted, as a charge against the employee's sick leave entitlement, leave with pay if an employee's spouse (or partner) or a person who depends on the employee for care, is sick or injured.

Where three or more days sick leave is taken a medical certificate from a registered health practitioner must be produced if the employer so requires.

The employee must inform the employer of the intention to take sick leave as early as possible before they are due to start work, or if this is not practical as early as possible after that time.

Sick leave shall not be deducted in respect of any public holiday for which the employee is entitled.

6.6 Bereavement/Tangihanga Leave

6.6.1 An employee shall be granted bereavement/tangihanga leave on pay to allow a reasonable opportunity for the employee to discharge his or her obligations and/or to pay his or her respects to a deceased person with whom he/she has had a close association. The entitlement to this leave extends to the death of any members of the employee's family, or person who, because of particular cultural requirements on the employee, they are obliged to attend to as a part of a tangihanga or its equivalent.

6.6.2 In exercising its discretion to grant this leave, and in fixing the length of leave, the employer must discharge its obligations in a culturally sensitive manner, taking into account the following:

- the closeness of the association between the employee and the deceased;
- the responsibilities of the employee for any or all of the arrangements for the ceremonies resulting from the death;
- the amount of time needed properly to discharge any responsibilities or obligations by an employee; and reasonable travelling time, provided that the employer need not take into account total travelling time where an employee must attend a funeral overseas.

However, any decision regarding the length of bereavement leave will be no less than the minimum amounts set out by s70 of the Holidays Act 2003.

Note 1: The minimum entitlement prescribed in the Holidays Act 2003 for a bereavement on the death of the employee's spouse, parent, child (including by reason of miscarriage or still birth), brother or sister, grandparent, grandchild or spouse's parent is three days' paid leave.

Note 2: The minimum entitlement prescribed in the Holidays Act 2003 for a bereavement on the death of any other person where obligations (such as those in 6.6.1) exist is one day.

6.6.3 The employer's decision on this leave and the length of such leave will be made as quickly as possible so that the employee is given maximum time possible to make any arrangements necessary. In most cases the necessary approval will be given immediately, but may be given retrospectively where necessary. If paid leave is not appropriate then leave without pay shall be granted, but as a last resort.

Where an employee is absent on annual leave and a bereavement occurs the employer shall be notified and will determine the number of days of bereavement leave to be granted in accordance with 6.6.2 above. The days shall replace the annual leave.

If bereavement leave is sought while an employee is absent on sick leave or any other leave with pay, the employer may agree to such leave being interrupted and bereavement leave being granted in its place.

The above provisions will not apply if the employee is on leave without pay.

6.6.5 Payment of bereavement leave will be an amount that is equivalent to the employee's relevant daily pay for each day of bereavement taken by the employee that would otherwise be a working day for the employee.

6.7 Parental Leave

6.7.1 Parental leave shall be allowed in accordance with the requirements and provisions of the Parental Leave and Employment Protection Act 1987. The following provisions are by way of summary of the Act. Further details are available at [http://employment.govt.nz/leave-and-holidays/parental-leave/\(external link\)](http://employment.govt.nz/leave-and-holidays/parental-leave/(external link)) or free phone 0800 20 90 20.

6.7.2 This Act provides that on written application an employee shall be entitled to unpaid parental leave provided that:

the employee has worked for the same employer for 6 months before the expected date of delivery or the date of adoption; and the employee has worked at least 10 hours per week during that period.

6.7.3 Parental leave is:

parental carer leave of up to 26 weeks;

special leave of up to 10 days;

paternity leave of up to 2 weeks; and extended leave of up to 52 weeks.

6.7.4 The same leave provisions apply to parents adopting children of not more than 5 years of age.

6.7.5 Attention is drawn to the employment protection clauses of the Parental Leave and Employment Protection Act 1987.

6.7.6 A kaiārahi i te reo's position shall be held open, subject to any redundancy situation arising at the school or the expiry of the employee's employment agreement, for the duration of the leave.

6.8 Parental Grant (Kaiārahi i te Reo and Therapists)

6.8.1 Where an employee takes primary carer leave (as defined in section 2 of the Parental Leave and Employment Protection Act 1987) and returns to duty before or at the expiration of their parental leave and completes a further six months service, they qualify for a payment equivalent to 6 weeks' pay at the rate applying for the six weeks immediately prior to the commencement of parental leave.

6.8.2 Provided that, if both parents are employed in the school, or the employee's partner is employed in the Education Service or Public Service, and are both eligible for payment, then they are entitled to one and only one payment, and they may choose (after they have qualified) who will receive it.

6.8.3 Any adjustments to the salary scale that are backdated into the period covered will apply.

6.8.4 An employee who is absent on parental leave for less than six weeks will have their payment prorated based on the period of absence on parental leave.

6.8.5 Any payment is to be based on the percentage rate of employment prior to absence on parental leave. However, an employee who works less than their normal hours for a short period only, prior to their commencing parental leave, may have their case for full payment considered by the employer.

6.8.6 Part 6.8 applies to Kaiārahi i te Reo (for whom Part 3.1 applies) who take primary carer leave after 4 July 2022, and Therapists (for whom Part 3.2 applies) who take primary carer leave after 13 March 2024.

6.9 Re-entry After Absence Due to Childcare

6.9.1 An employee who resigns to care for pre-school children may apply to be re-employed by the employer from whose employment she/he resigned and be appointed to a vacancy with that employer under preferential provisions provided that:

the absence does not exceed four years from the date of resignation or, five years from the date of cessation of duties to take up parental leave; and the applicant must:

produce a birth certificate or the pre-school child;

sign a statutory declaration indicating that absence has been due to the care of a pre-school child and paid employment has not been entered into for more than 15 hours per week during absence.

6.9.2 Where the applicant meets all the provisions of 6.9.1 above and, at the time of application:

has the necessary skills to fill competently, a vacancy which is available; and the position is substantially the same in character and at the same or lower salary and grading as the position previously held, then the applicant under these provisions is to be appointed in preference to any other applicant for the position.

6.9.3 Absence for childcare reasons will interrupt service but not break it. The period of absence will not count as service for the purposes of sick leave or annual leave or any other leave entitlement.

6.9.4 The period of preferential appointment expires 3 months after the period in 6.9.1(a).

6.10 Jury Service

6.10.1 The employer will grant leave with pay when an employee is required to serve on a jury provided that all fees for service are reimbursed to the employer.

6.11 Other Special Leave

6.11.1 The employer may, where there are special circumstances, grant discretionary leave with or without pay to any employee during periods when the school is officially open for instruction, provided that such leave does not unreasonably impinge upon the operational requirements of the school.

6.11.2 Before approving any discretionary leave, the employer shall ensure that the granting of such leave complies with any funding arrangements applying to the school in respect of such leave.

6.12 Family Violence Leave

6.12.1 Family Violence Leave as provided for by the Holidays Act 2003 is in addition to other leave allowances within the collective agreement.

6.13 Disregarded Sick Leave

6.13.1 Disregarded sick leave will be granted where the employer is satisfied that the employee has contracted a notifiable infectious disease listed in Part 1 of Schedule 1 of the Health Act 1956, and is either:

complying with a written request or direction from a Medical Officer of Health to refrain from attending school for a specified period, or is otherwise prevented from attending work by a relevant Public Health Order.

6.13.2 The employee shall produce:

medical certificate or other evidence of illness, as required by their employer, for absences exceeding two days;
and evidence of the written request or direction from the Medical Officer of Health or a copy of the relevant Public Health Order.

6.13.3 The maximum number of days of sick leave that can be disregarded is the lesser of:

The period specified by the Medical Officer of Health or the relevant Public Health Order; or

The number of days of paid sick leave available to the employee on the day prior to the first day of the period specified by the Medical Officer of Health or Public Health Order.

6.13.4 Where paid sick leave has been deducted for any period subsequently granted as disregarded sick leave under clause 6.12.1 above, the sick leave will be reinstated.

7.3.2 In situations where employees may be at significantly increased risk of acquiring hepatitis B or similar diseases because of the nature of their job, the situation shall be assessed on an individual basis to decide if immunisation would be appropriate. Immunisation will be provided by the employer if appropriate.

7.3.3 In all situations where there is a risk of infection of the kind envisaged in clause 7.3.2, it shall be the duty of the employer to require safe working practices on the part of the employee and to ensure appropriate hygiene practices to reduce such risk to a minimum, whether or not immunisation is considered advisable.

7.4.1 Attention is drawn to the Privacy Act 2020\(external link\) which outlines responsibility for the collection, storage and availability of personal information.

Part 8: Complaints and Discipline

8.1 General

8.1.1 The following principles shall be used in addressing complaints against employees and matters of discipline to ensure that such matters can in the interests of the parties be fully and fairly addressed. Many complaints will be able to be resolved by discussion between the principal and the employee concerned without the need to take the matter any further. Boards should, wherever appropriate, seek to resolve complaints in this manner in the first instance. Questions of conduct and/or discipline should be handled in a manner which as far as possible protects the mana and dignity of the employee concerned. Employees may seek whanau, family, professional and/or NZEI Te Riu Roa support in relation to such matters.

8.2 Ngā Kōrero Me Ngā Tikanga

8.2.1 Me tuku reta atu ki te kaimahi hei whakama rama atu i nga raruraru kua puta noa. Mehemea he pai ki te kaimahi raua tahi ko tona tumuaki, e ahei ana ki te whakahaere tonutia nga whakaritenga i raro i nga tikanga Maori.

8.2.2 Anei ra ētahi momo tikanga hei kowhiringa ma ratou:

he huihuinga kei te marae;
he whakawhiti kōrero kanohi ki te kanohi;
ka hui mai te whanau hei tuara mo te katoa; a ka hui mai nga kaumatua kuia hei arahi hei tohutohu i a ratou katoa.

8.2.3 Mena ka whakaaetia te kaimahi raua ko tona tumuaki o raua kaihautū ranei, kia oti pai ai te kaupapa, ma raua ma nga kaihautū ranei e hainatia nga whakaaetanga i tuhia. Makaia atu tētahi kape o nga whakaetanga nei ki te konae o te kaimahi.

Ina hoki ka tahuri mai tētahi taha ki enei ki 8.3, 8.4 me 8.5 i raro nei, me tuhituhi hei whakamarama ki tera atu taha.

8.2 Discussions in a Maori context

8.2.1 The employee must be advised in writing of the specific matter(s) causing concern. The employee and employer may, depending on the nature of the complaint, agree to attempt to deal with a complaint by it being heard in a Maori context and manner.

8.2.2 A Maori context and manner relates to the following:

meetings can be held on marae;
there is face to face engagement;
there can be whānau support for all involved; and guidance and advice is often provided by kaumātua and kuia for all involved.

8.2.3 Should the employee and employer, or their representatives on their behalf, agree to a resolution of the matter then this shall be recorded in writing and signed by both parties and/or their representatives on their behalf. A copy of the agreement will be placed on the employee's personal file.

8.2.4 This is a discretionary option and either party may withdraw at any time, and nothing in this section prevents the employer or the employee deciding at any time that any or all of the procedures in clauses 8.3, 8.4 and/or 8.5 will be used. Where either party decides to withdraw from this process such a decision will not of itself give rise to any claim of procedural deficiency or unfairness. The decision to withdraw from this process and/or for the employer to use any or all the procedures in clauses 8.3, 8.4 and/or 8.5 will be notified in writing to the other party.

8.3 Discipline and Dismissal

8.3.1 The following principles are to be followed when dealing with disciplinary matters:

The employee must be advised of the right to request representation at any stage.

The employee must be advised in writing of the specific matter(s) causing concern and be given a reasonable opportunity to provide an explanation. Before making a final decision the employer may need to make further inquiries in order to be satisfied as to the facts of the specific matter(s) causing concern.

The employee must be advised of any corrective action required to amend their conduct and given a reasonable opportunity to do so.

If the offence is sufficiently serious an employee is to be placed on suspension with or without pay pending further inquiry under clause 8.3.1(b) above.

The process and any disciplinary action are to be recorded, sighted and signed by the employee, and placed on their personal file.

The provisions in Part 12 explain the processes available under the Employment Relations Act 2000 to any employee aggrieved by any action of their employer taken under these provisions.

8.4 Suspension

8.4.1 If the alleged conduct is deemed sufficiently serious an employee may be either suspended with or without pay or transferred temporarily to other duties.

8.4.2 The employer shall not, unless there are exceptional circumstances, suspend the employee without first allowing the employee a reasonable opportunity to make submissions to the employer about the alleged misconduct and the appropriateness of the suspension in all of the circumstances. The employer shall take into account any submissions made by the employee before determining the matter of suspension.

8.4.3 The employer shall use its best endeavours to ensure that the period of suspension is kept to the minimum possible time consistent with ensuring that the allegations of misconduct are properly investigated and that the employee is treated fairly at all times.

8.4.4 If the allegation that led to the suspension is without substance the employee shall be reinstated effective from the date of suspension.

8.5 Instant Dismissal

8.5.1 Nothing in Part 8 prevents instant dismissal without notice in the case of serious misconduct.

Part 9: Termination and Abandonment of Employment and Record of Service

9.1 Termination of Employment

9.1.1 Unless otherwise agreed between the employer and the employee and except as provided in clause 9.1.2, termination of employment shall be by one month's notice by either the employee or the employer, to the other party; except in cases of serious misconduct which may warrant instant dismissal.

9.1.2 Where an employee is appointed for a fixed term pursuant to clause 2.4.1(ii), and the date of the specified event is unknown at the time of appointment, the employee shall have their employment terminated on the occurrence of that specified event. The employer is required to give at least two weeks' notice of termination of employment.

9.2 Abandonment of Employment

9.2.1 Where an employee is absent from work for a continuous period exceeding three days without the consent of the employer and without good cause or without notification to the employer they shall be deemed to have terminated their employment.

9.3 Record of Service

9.3.1 Each employee on leaving or being discharged from her/his employment shall, on request, be given as soon as practicable, a certificate in writing signed by the employer and stating the position held and the length of service.

Part 10: Employment Protection and Surplus Staffing Provisions

Kaiārahi i te Reo and Therapists' Collective Agreement
Effective 20 June 2022 to 19 December 2024

We are making improvements to our Download to Print functionality, so if you want a printed copy of this agreement please download the PDF version of the Kaiārahi i te Reo and Therapists' Collective Agreement.

10.1 Employment Protection Provision

10.1.1 'Restructuring' is given the same definition as in section 69OI of the ERA 2000 and includes:

- Contracting out; or
- Selling or transferring the employer's business (or part of it) to another person;

but excludes mergers (in the case of mergers clause 10.3 will apply).

10.1.2 Where work undertaken by an employee covered by this Agreement will be, or is likely to be, undertaken by a new employer (whether or not the new employer is an "employer" defined in 1.3) the employer will notify the National Office of the union(s) where one or more of the employees affected by the restructuring is a member of the union(s). In such circumstances the employer will meet with representative(s) of the union(s) to:

- Identify the issues the employee(s) wish to have considered by the new employer;
- Ensure that all current terms and conditions of employment of the employee(s) are accurately recorded;
- and
- Determine the process by which communications to/from the employee(s) will be conducted.

10.1.3 The employer will encourage the new employer to agree to the involvement of the union(s) in the processes described in clauses 10.1.4 and 10.1.5 below.

10.1.4 Having completed the process described in 10.1.2 above, the employer will meet with the new employer to:

- provide the new employer with details of the work currently performed by the employees concerned together with details of the terms and conditions of their employment; and
- seek a proposal for the employment of the affected employees by the new employer, including clarification of the terms and conditions upon which those employees would be offered employment by the new employer.

10.1.5 The following shall be matters for clarification under clause 10.1.4(b) and again should be read in conjunction with the surplus staffing provisions of this collective agreement.

- the number and type of positions that may be offered by the new employer to employees affected by the restructuring;
- the terms and conditions of employment to be offered to those employees (including whether the employees will transfer to the new employer on the same terms and conditions of employment);
- the arrangements, if required, for the transfer of any accrued benefits and entitlements in relation to those employees;
- the arrangements, if required, for when and how offers of employment are to be made to the affected employees and the mode of acceptance, including whether any offers of employment made by the new employer will be conveyed through the representatives of the union(s).

10.1.6 The notice provisions of the surplus staffing provisions shall apply as described in 10.2.3 and 10.2.4 below.

10.1.7 The process to be followed at the time of the restructuring to determine what entitlements, if any, are available for employees who do not transfer to the new employer are set out in 10.2 below. This clause as a whole shall be read in conjunction with those provisions.

10.1.8 Clause 10.1 shall be read in conjunction with clause 10.2.

10.2 Surplus Staffing Provisions

10.2.1 The surplus staffing provisions shall not apply to any employee who is employed on a fixed term basis as defined in 2.4. The provisions in relation to staff affected by a merger of 2 or more schools are set out under clause 10.3 and any provisions in 10.2 will only apply where they are specifically provided for in clause 10.3.

10.2.2 A surplus staffing situation may arise when the work undertaken by the employee ceases to exist. This may be the result of the restructuring of the whole or any part of the employer's operations because of, for example:

the reorganisation or review of work;

a change in plant (or like cause) relevant to the individual employees employment; or change of status or closure of the school, or the sale or transfer of all or part of the school.

10.2.3 The employer shall, at least one month prior to issuing notice of termination, advise any affected employee(s) of the possibility of a surplus staffing situation within an occupational category in the school.

10.2.4 The period of notice is to allow time for discussion between the employer and the employee(s) of the reasons for the possible surplus staffing situation and to determine whether this surplus can be absorbed by attrition. The employer shall consider whether or not it is able to offer an alternative position within the school with terms and conditions that are no less favourable, which may also entail on the job retraining.

10.2.5 If the required number of positions cannot be achieved through attrition (refer clause 10.2.4) and a surplus staffing situation still exists, all available positions in the occupational category will be internally advertised and appointments made from existing employees in that category. Where there is only one position in the identified occupational category in which the surplus exists identification of the position shall be automatic.

10.2.6 Employees who are not appointed in terms of 10.2.5 above, or who are identified as surplus in terms of 10.2.5 above shall be given a minimum of one month's written notice of termination of employment provided for in clause 9.1. Except in exceptional circumstances (e.g., long-term sick leave), or as agreed with the employee, this notice shall be given at such a time as to ensure it covers a period of a full month during which the employee is paid and at work.

10.2.7 During the notice of termination period both the employer and the employee shall make reasonable efforts to locate alternative employment for the employee. The employer will provide reasonable paid time to attend interviews, where prior approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

10.2.8 In the event that a reasonable offer of employment in the education or state service is made the employer's responsibilities under these provisions shall be fulfilled.

10.2.9 For the purposes of 10.2.8 a reasonable offer of employment shall constitute an offer of employment that:

- is in the same location or within reasonable commuting distance;
- has comparable duties and responsibilities; and
- has terms and conditions that are no less favourable providing the employment being offered is available to be taken up by the employee prior to or at the conclusion of the notice of termination period.

10.2.10 If the offer of employment referred to in 10.2.9 is not a reasonable offer by reason only that it is not available to be taken up by the employee before or at the conclusion of the notice period, the employer may extend the notice period until such time as the position is available to be taken up by the employee; and under these circumstances the offer shall be deemed to be reasonable.

The employer must first ensure that in granting such extended notice that this complies with any funding arrangement applying to the school.

10.2.11 In the event of a school closure, the employee may be made an offer of employment prior to the disestablishment of the position at another state or integrated school. Where this is an offer of employment to a lower graded position or a position at a lower hourly/salary rate than that previously held, the employee shall be entitled to an equalisation allowance calculated in accordance with 10.3.10(f). Where this is an offer of employment to a position with reduced hours to that previously held, the employee shall be entitled to a partial redundancy payment calculated in accordance with 10.3.10(g). Where the employee accepts such an offer the employer of the closing schools' responsibilities under 10.2.12 below shall be fulfilled. Where the employee does not accept such an offer the provisions of 10.2.12 shall apply.

10.2.12 Except as provided under 10.2.11, above where a reasonable offer of employment is not made before the expiry of the notice of termination period the employee will be entitled to redundancy pay calculated as follows:

6 weeks' pay for the first year of service and two weeks' pay for every subsequent year or part thereof to a maximum of 30 weeks' pay in total.

Note 1: This is calculated on current gross weekly earnings as at the last day of service or on average gross weekly earnings over the previous 12 months service whichever is the greater.

Note 2: For the purposes of the redundancy calculation the definition of service for employees other than therapists is the same as that defined in 6.5.3 (a) and (b) provided that no period of service that ended with the employee receiving a redundancy or severance payment shall be counted as service.

Note 3: For the purposes of the redundancy calculation the definition of service for therapists is the same as that defined in 6.2.1 provided that no period of service that ended with the employee receiving a redundancy or severance payment shall be counted as service.

Note 4: An employee with less than one year's service shall receive a pro-rata payment.

All holiday pay and wages owing.

10.2.13 A work reference or record of service shall be provided on the employee's request.

10.3 Staffing Merger Provisions

(Note: Any reference to "support staff" in the clauses below means a Kaiārahi i te reo or a therapist.)

10.3.1 The purposes of these provisions are to:

Provide a staffing merger process that facilitates a fair and orderly transition;

Ensure an appropriate structure is in place to enable the merged school to function efficiently and effectively;

Ensure that as many employees as possible currently employed in a merging school are re-assigned or re-confirmed to positions in the merged school;

Ensure that employees of the merging schools who are not reconfirmed or reassigned to positions in the merged school have access to redundancy compensation in a fair and timely manner.

10.3.2 "Merging schools" includes the merging school(s) and the continuing school before the date of merger; and "merged school" is the continuing school from the date of merger.

10.3.3 "Employee" shall mean a permanent employee of one of the merging schools who falls within the coverage clause of this Agreement.

10.3.4 Employment Protection

Actual vacancies that arise at the schools involved in a merger or the merged school, from the earlier of the announcement of a staff review or Gazette notices shall be filled with temporary appointments. However, if operational needs require, the employer may determine, in consultation with the union, that any such position may be made permanent. This moratorium applies until the completion of the reconfirmation/reassignment process and notice period, except as provided elsewhere in clause 10.3. Throughout the staffing merger process the employer shall attempt to meet any reduction required by the use of attrition.

Throughout the staffing merger process no support staff position at the merged school shall be externally advertised until the reconfirmation and reassignment processes described in clauses 10.3.9 and 10.3.10 respectively have been finalised.

10.3.5 Needs Analysis

The needs analysis is the process that designs the staffing structure for the merged school. This process will be conducted by representatives of all the boards involved in the merger (the joint schools' committee or merger committee).

This committee shall conduct a needs analysis in consultation with employees and the union.

The needs analysis shall:

- identify the future support staff structure and needs of the merged school; and
- ensure that the required staff roles have been clearly defined in terms of occupational category and appropriate grade

As a result of the consultation process, a draft 'staffing plan' shall be developed and made available to each employee, and to the nominee(s) of the NZEI Te Riu Roa, for further consultation.

No less than ten working days shall be made available for this consultation to occur before any further step is taken, unless otherwise agreed.

(Note: The parties agree that it is desirable to have the same number of days as the teachers in the affected school.)

If, as a result of consultation, there are alterations to this draft, the amended versions shall also be made available for a further three working days.

When the final staffing structure is announced, the employer shall invite all employees to express a preference (or preferences) in writing, for a position (or positions) at the merged school. Where this announcement identifies the possibility of a position or positions being disestablished, any affected employee(s) shall be given one month's written notice of a possible surplus staffing situation within her/his occupational category in the school. This period of notice must be allowed before notice of termination, as described in clause 10.3.11(a) of this clause, may be given.

Employees shall have at least one calendar week's notice of the closing date for expressions of interest in the position(s) at the merged school.

10.3.6 Appointments Process

The boards involved in the merger may agree on a Joint Appointments Committee or use the committee referred to in 10.3.5 (a) above (hereafter referred to as the Committee). The Committee should be responsible for managing the reconfirmation and reassignment process for all staff.

The principal of the merged school, once appointed, should be included on the Committee.

10.3.7 Voluntary Option

Following the publication of the final staffing structure, the employer board shall invite written expressions of interest in the option of voluntary redundancy. Subject to the employee completing the required period of notice (two months, or less by mutual agreement) an employee whose application for voluntary redundancy is accepted shall receive her/his full entitlement to redundancy pay as prescribed by clause 10.2.12 (Surplus Staffing) of the Agreement.

An employee may continue to volunteer for this option without prejudice or withdraw from it at any point in the staffing merger process, providing the employer has not already accepted the application in writing. No letter of acceptance will be issued without the agreement of the Committee.

The employer shall not be bound to agree to any application for voluntary redundancy.

10.3.8 Appointment/Selection Process

For the purpose of clauses 10.3.9, 10.3.10 and 10.3.11 below:

‘Reconfirmation’ shall mean the process whereby employees are transferred to suitable positions at the re-organised school.

A ‘suitable position’ is one which has similar duties and/or for which the applicant is appropriately qualified and experienced or could become so with reasonable access to re-training. The new position shall have the same or a higher grading.

‘Reassignment’ shall mean the process that applies to functionally equivalent positions.

‘Functionally equivalent’ shall mean positions which are generally similar in role, duties and status and which require similar qualifications, training, skills and experience but may have different titles.

‘Merit’ means the most suitable person and primarily includes assessment of qualifications, training, skills and experience.

10.3.9 Reconfirmation

The employer shall reconfirm (as defined in clause 10.3.8(a)(i) above) employees to suitable positions at the merged school.

An employee may be reconfirmed to her/his preferred position or, subject to her/his agreement, to a position for which she/he is appropriately qualified and experienced.

Where there are two or more employees eligible for re-confirmation to a single position, the employer shall reconfirm the most suitable candidate(s) based on merit.

Where a permanent employee is reconfirmed, this must be into a position of at least the same hours.

Provided that where an employee accepts redeployment to a position with reduced hours in a situation where a position with at least the same hours is not available, that employee will be entitled to a partial redundancy payment.

Partial redundancy will be calculated on the basis of applying the redundancy pay formula described in clause 10.2.12 (Surplus Staffing) of this agreement to the total number of reduced hours as set out under clauses 2.5 and 2.6 (Hours of Work) of this Agreement. This total shall be paid as an allowance over the number of weeks of entitlement. Should the employee’s hours increase over this period the allowance will be reduced or removed accordingly.

10.3.10 Re-assignment to Functionally Equivalent Positions

Following completion of the reconfirmation process, the employer may reassign an employee, who has not been reconfirmed in accordance with clause 10.3.9, to a suitable position at the merged school.

Subject to the provisions in this section, if an employee expresses a preference for a position that is functionally equivalent (as defined under 10.3.8(a)(iv) above) to her/his current position, and she/he is the only suitably qualified and experienced employee for that position, she/he shall be reassigned to that position.

An employee may be reassigned to her/his preferred position or, subject to the agreement of the employee, to a position for which she/he is appropriately qualified and experienced.

Where there are more employees in positions that are functionally equivalent than there are such positions at the merged school, the employer shall seek internal applications for the position(s) from those employees and shall appoint the most suitable candidate(s) based upon merit.

An employee who is not appointed to a functionally equivalent position at the merged school may be reassigned to any vacant position for which she/he is suitable, or could become suitable with access to re-training, provided the terms and conditions are no less favourable and the duties and responsibilities are comparable.

An employee who accepts reassignment to a position assessed as being at a lower grade and/or offering a lower hourly rate/salary rate will be entitled to an equalization allowance for a period of one year from the date on which the reassignment takes effect. The equalisation allowance will be calculated on the basis of the difference between the hourly rate/salary rate paid to the employee prior to reassignment and that paid for the position to which she/he has been reassigned. Should the position be upgraded, or a higher graded position obtained during the 12 month period, the allowance would be reduced accordingly or removed.

An employee who accepts reassignment to a position with reduced hours will be entitled to a partial redundancy payment. Partial redundancy will be calculated on the basis of applying the redundancy pay formula described in clause 10.2.12 (Surplus Staffing) of this Agreement to the total number of reduced hours, as set under clauses 2.5 and 2.6 (Hours of Work) of this Agreement. This total shall be paid as an allowance over the number of weeks of entitlement. Should the employee's hours increase over this period it will be reduced or removed accordingly.

An employee who does not wish to accept reassignment to a position with less favourable terms and/or conditions will be deemed to have had her/his position disestablished. The provisions of clause 10.3.11 below will apply to any such employee.

10.3.11 Notice and Disestablishment of Positions

Any employee who is not reconfirmed or reassigned as per clauses 10.3.9 and 10.3.10 above will be deemed to have had their position disestablished and will be given written notice of termination advising of the date that the notice will take effect. This notice period will be a minimum of one month.

If, during the two-month notice period, a suitable permanent position arises at the merged school the employee may seek appointment to that position and, if she/he is suitably qualified and experienced, she/he shall be appointed to that position.

During the notice period the employer will provide reasonable paid time for the employee to attend interviews.

Clauses 10.2.7 – 10.2.10 (Surplus Staffing) shall apply in relation to the notice period. These provisions emphasise the responsibilities in relation to securing alternative employment on the employer and employee. Where a reasonable offer of employment, as defined in clauses 10.2.8 and 10.2.9, is made in the education or state service, the employer has no further obligation in relation to redundancy payments. Scope exists to co-ordinate the notice period and availability of the new position.

If at the completion of the notice period alternative employment is not found in accordance with clauses 10.3.9 and, 10.3.10 or clauses 10.2.7 and 10.2.8 (Surplus Staffing) of this Agreement, the employee will receive redundancy and a work reference or record of service in accordance with clauses 10.2.12 and 10.2.13 (Surplus Staffing) of this Agreement.

What is an employment relationship problem?

12.1.1 It is a problem between employee and employer. For example, it might be a personal grievance or a dispute about a provision in an employment agreement.

Resolving an employment relationship problem

12.2.1 The employee and employer should first make a reasonable effort to discuss the problem and settle it by mutual agreement. (If it's a personal grievance, it must first be raised with the employer and within 90 days - Personal Grievances are explained further below).

12.2.2 An employee (or employer) has the right to be represented at any stage.

12.2.3 When a problem arises, union members should contact their local NZEI Te Riu Roa field officer for advice and representation.

12.2.4 Employers should contact New Zealand School Trustees Association or other adviser/representative of choice.

Personal Grievances

12.3.1 A personal grievance is a particular type of employment relationship problem that normally must be raised with the employer within 90 days of the grievance arising.

12.3.2 An employee may have a personal grievance where:

They have been dismissed without good reason, or the dismissal was not carried out properly.

They have been treated unfairly.

Their employment or a condition of their employment has been affected to their disadvantage by an unjustified action of their employer.

They have experienced sexual or racial harassment, or have been discriminated against because of their involvement in a union or other employee organisation, or have suffered duress over membership or non-membership of a union or other employee organisation.

They have been discriminated against in terms of the prohibited grounds of discrimination under the Human Rights Act 1993(external link).

Note: The full meaning of the terms personal grievance, discrimination, sexual harassment, racial harassment, and duress, shall be the meaning given by sections 103 to 110 inclusive of the Employment Relations Act 2000(external link) only.

Services Available

12.4.1 To help resolve employment relationship problems, the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE) provides:

An information service

This is free. It is available by contacting MBIE or by phoning toll free 0800 20 90 20. MBIE's Employment Relations Service internet address is <https://www.employment.govt.nz>(external link) and can be contacted by e-mail at info@ers.dol.govt.nz.

Employment Mediation Service

This service helps to resolve employment relationship problems and generally to promote the smooth conduct of employment relationships.

Mediation is a mutual problem solving process, with the aim of reaching an agreement, assisted by an independent third party.

If the parties can't reach a settlement they can ask the mediator, in writing, to make a final and binding decision.

A settlement reached through mediation and signed by the mediator at the request of the parties is final, binding and enforceable. Neither party can then take the matter any further and either party can be made to comply with the agreed settlement by court order.

If the problem is unresolved through mediation either party may apply to have the matter dealt with by the Employment Relations Authority.

The Employment Relations Authority

This Authority is an investigative body that operates in an informal way. It looks into the facts and makes a decision on the merits of the case and not on the legal technicalities.

Either an employer or an employee can refer an unresolved employment relationship problem to the Authority by filing the appropriate forms.

The Authority may call evidence, hold investigative meetings, or interview anyone involved. It can direct the parties to try mediation. If mediation is unsuitable or has not resolved the problem, the Authority will make a decision that is binding on all parties. Any party can contest the Authority's decision through the Employment Court.

Note: All employment relationship problems, including personal grievances and any disputes about the interpretation or application of this agreement, must be resolved under Parts 9 and 10 of the Employment Relations Act 2000(external link).
