2.1 Categories of Employment

2.1.1 Full-time, permanent employment will be the norm, however:

The employer may engage part-time salaried employees where the work is as follows:

- ongoing (that is, not temporary, seasonal or fluctuating in nature); and
- of a type which would be performed by full-time employees if it were full time; and
- it involves a regular work pattern which should normally be at least 15 hours per week; and is capable of being performed efficiently on a part-time basis.

Fixed term employment

The employer may engage temporary or fixed-term employees where the work is temporary, seasonal or fluctuating in nature, including acting in a relieving capacity.

An employee and an employer may agree that the employment of the employee will end:

- at the close of a specified date or period; or
- on the occurrence of a specified event; or
- at the conclusion of a specified project.

Before an employee and employer agree that the employment of the employee will end in a way specified in subsection (b)(ii) the employer must:

- have genuine reasons based on reasonable grounds for specifying that the employment of the employee is to end in that way; and
- advise the employee in writing of when or how his or her employment will end and the reasons for his or her employment ending in that way.

The following reasons are not genuine reasons for the purposes of subsection (b)(iii)(a) -

- to exclude or limit the rights of the employee under the Employment Relations Act 2000;
- to establish the suitability of the employee for permanent employment.

2.2 Re-entry After Absence Due To Childcare

2.2.1 A permanent employee who resigned from the School to care for pre-school children may apply to re-enter that School under preferential provisions provided that:

The absence does not exceed four years from the date of resignation or, five years from the date of cessation of duties to take up parental leave.

The applicant must:

- produce a birth certificate for the pre-school child;
 - sign a statutory declaration to the effect that absence has been due to the care of a pre-school child and paid employment has not been entered into for more than 15 hours per week or other income received during that absence.
- Note: Where paid employment has been entered into for substantially more than 15 hours per week, or other income earned is in excess of $8625 pa, eligibility will be at the discretion of the employer.

An applicant seeking to return to a School must give at least 3 month's notice and renew that notice at least one month before the date he/she wishes to return to work or one month before the expiry of the period in (a), whichever is the earliest.

2.2.2 Where the applicant meets all the provisions of Clause 2.2.1 above and at the time of application:

- has the necessary skills to fill competently a vacancy which is available in the School; and
- the position is substantially the same in character and at the same or lower salary and grading as the position previously held, then the applicant under these provisions is to be appointed in preference to any other applicant for the position.

2.2.3 Absence for child care reasons will interrupt service but not break it. The period of absence will not count as service for the purposes of sick, annual, or any other leave entitlement.

2.2.4 There shall be no right of review against the appointment of an applicant under these provisions unless the applicant is appointed to a position at a higher grade than that held at the time of resigning.

2.2.5 If an applicant under these provisions is not appointed to any position within three months after the expiry of the period in clause 2.2.1 (a) the benefits of these provisions will lapse.

3.1.1 Principles:

Hours of work shall be continuous each day, aside from meal and rest breaks. Ordinary hours of work shall not exceed 8 per day. Days of work will normally be consecutive. All employees shall enjoy regular and/or predictable work patterns. Any changes to working hours for Standard scale employees shall be by mutual agreement, except in emergencies.

"Emergencies" are unforeseen events which adversely affect the functioning of the School.

3.1.2 Scale working hours:

Standard scale hours: 40 hours each week to be worked between 7.30am and 7.30pm daily from Monday to Friday inclusive, with not more than one hour for lunch each day.

Note: Employees on Standard scale hours will, wherever possible, be granted the opportunity to work flexible hours.

Rostered scale hours: 40 hours each week (may be averaged over 2 weeks) between 9.00pm and 7.30am for night attendants, and between 6.30am and 10pm for other rostered scale employees, to be worked as part of a regular roster cycle.

Placement of an employee on Rostered scale hours is at the discretion of the Principal.

It is acknowledged that Rostered employees are required to undertake such duties as preparation, evaluation and assessment time generated by student contact, in addition to their normal contact time, and that these factors have been taken into consideration in determining the employee's hours of work and leave entitlements.)

Rostered employees shall not be required to attend school during any time when the school is officially closed for instruction, other than in accordance with this clause. Boards may require employees to attend school or elsewhere, when the school is closed for instruction (except on weekends or statutory holidays unless by agreement) to undertake planning, preparation and professional development for up to 15 days per annum.

Permanent changes to rosters may be made by the employer after giving at least 5 working days' notice.

Where practicable (and especially where the day off is a single day) rosters are to be arranged so that the day's work finishes as early as possible on the day preceding the day/s off and resumes as late as possible on the day following the day/s off.

3.1.3 All employees shall, wherever practicable, be allowed a minimum break of nine uninterrupted hours between one day's work and the next. Where such a break is not allowed, any time worked shall be paid at overtime rates until the break is able to be taken. Absence from work to achieve a nine hour break will be deemed to be time worked.

3.2 Meal and Rest Breaks

3.2.1 An employee shall be allowed a meal break of not less than 1/2 hour and not more than 1 hour after a maximum 5 hours worked.

3.2.2 An employee shall be allowed two rest breaks of 10 minutes each during each period of duty, at times specified by his/her employer.

3.3 Overtime

3.3.1 Overtime is time worked in excess of 40 hours per week or 8 hours per day.

3.3.2 Equivalent time off may be granted on the basis of one hour off for one hour worked, by mutual agreement between the employer and the employee.

3.3.3 Overtime is payable at the rate of T1 1/2 for the first three hours worked between 6.00am Monday and 12 noon Saturday, except that all overtime worked between 10.00pm and 6.00am on these days is payable at T2. All overtime worked between noon on Saturday and 6.00am on Monday or after three hours overtime has been worked on any day, is payable at T2. Overtime worked on statutory or designated holidays is payable at T2.

Note: Although these overtime rates apply to all staff, certain Rostered employees may receive an allowance in lieu of rostered overtime.

3.3.4 An employee in receipt of base salary of $60,000 (including higher duties allowance) or more, is not entitled to overtime payments. Any employee who through salary increases to grand-parented incremental steps has a base salary above $60,000 will not be affected by this provision in the term of this agreement.

3.4 Penal Rates

For ordinary hours worked:

- from 0000 to 1200 hours Saturday, T1/2 for the first 3 hours and T1 thereafter;
- from 1200 hours Saturday to 2400 hours Sunday, T1;
- between 2000 hours and 0600 hours any day, T1/4, with a minimum payment of 2 hours.

Note (i): These penalty payments are assessed on base salary;

Note (ii): Employees first appointed to a School, or appointed to a new position at a School on or after 1 May 1996 will have these penalty rates assessed at their actual salary or step 8 of the Base Salary scale (refer to clause 4.2.2), whichever is less.

Rostered employees may, instead of receiving penal rates, receive a loading in addition to salary, taking into account actual days and hours worked over a 12 month period. The loading will be averaged out over the full year and will also be paid during paid leave.

3.5 Call Back

3.5.1 Where an employee is called back to work after completing the day's work and after leaving the School for the day, or is called back before the normal starting time and does not continue working until normal starting time, that employee shall be paid for a minimum of 3 hours at the appropriate overtime rate.

3.5.2 This provision applies to days off as well as ordinary working days.

3.5.3 Call backs commencing within the minimum period covered by an earlier call back shall be deemed one call back.

3.6 Transitional Arrangements

3.6.1 Where any employee had previously entered into a salary arrangement which incorporated various allowances into his/her salary package, the salary arrangements shall be put in writing, clearly specifying the individual elements of the remuneration and signed by the employee, his/her employer and a representative of the PSA. One copy of the agreement will be retained by the employer on the employee's personal file and one copy retained by the employee.

3.6.2 Where various allowances have been incorporated into the salary package it is not the intention of the parties that the employee shall be paid in addition any allowances which have been already incorporated into the salary package. All employees bound by this Agreement shall have the benefit of all other minimum provisions in the Agreement.

3.6.3 By mutual agreement an employee who has had their remuneration salarised as per 3.6.1 above, can revert to base salary plus allowances relevant to their position. In determining the relevant allowances the parties acknowledge that the allowances contained in the original salarisation agreement may have changed in this Agreement.

3.6.4 Allowances contained in this Agreement that are the same, amended or new, relevant to the position, shall apply.

3.6.5 If any allowance has not been carried forward into this Agreement there is no entitlement.

Note: It is acknowledged that issues may arise under the Holidays Act 2003 regarding this clause which the parties will continue to work towards resolving.

the portion of the employee's relevant daily pay (less any penal rates) that relates to the time actually worked on the day plus half that amount again; or the portion of the employee's relevant daily pay that relates to the time actually worked on the day.

5.2.4 An employee required to work on a designated holiday (see 5.1.2) will be granted equivalent time off in lieu. They will receive no payment in addition to 8 hours ordinary pay until after 8 hours have been worked, when the appropriate overtime rate will be paid.

5.3 Holidays Falling During Leave or Time Off

5.3.1 Where a statutory or designated holiday falls during a period of annual, sick, or special leave on pay, an employee is entitled to that holiday which is not to be debited against such leave. This shall also apply on termination of employment whereby the final date of work is extended by any annual holiday entitlement not taken, and any statutory holiday falling during that period is debited and the annual leave is extended accordingly.

5.4 Recreation Leave Standard employees

One day's recreation leave will be granted each year to Standard scale employees and must be taken during the following year. Recreation leave not taken at the time of ceasing service with the School will be forfeited.

5.5 Annual Leave Standard employees

5.5.1 Annual leave is to be taken in term holidays wherever practicable.

5.5.2 Annual leave of 5 weeks per annum shall be allowed in accordance with the Holidays Act 2003 (refer table 1 below);

5.5.3 Employees shall, on completion of six years' service, become entitled to annual leave of 6 weeks per annum as at 1 December immediately following. (refer to table 1 below).

SERVICE	ANNUAL LEAVE ENTITLEMENT
0-6 years service	5 weeks annual leave + 1 recreational day *

TABLE 1:
SERVICE	ANNUAL LEAVE ENTITLEMENT
7 years service	6 weeks annual leave + 1 recreational day *

* refer clause 5.4

5.5.4 Except in relation to a closedown period or when agreement is unable to be reached, when annual holidays are to be taken is to be agreed between the employer and employee.

5.5.5 Except as specifically provided by the employer, an employee who has been absent on special leave with or without pay in excess of 35 consecutive days in 1 or more periods in any leave year is to have his/her leave reduced in the proportion that the number of days leave bears to 365.

Note: The operation of the provision shall not disadvantage any employee in relation to any minimum entitlement under the Holidays Act 2003.

5.5.6 For example, an employee with 5 weeks leave entitlement who has had 55 days special leave will have his/her annual leave entitlement reduced by $55/365 \times 25 = 4$ days.

5.5.7 Employees with over 20 years continuous service may anticipate 1 years' annual leave entitlement for the purpose of taking an overseas trip.

5.5.8 Employees may be permitted to anticipate up to half the annual leave entitlement due, subject to refund on termination or resignation of employment if necessary. Employees in their first year of service may be granted anticipated annual leave proportionate to their length of service.

5.5.9 Holiday pay shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Holidays Act 2003 except as provided under 4.13 above.

5.6 Annual leave Rostered employees

5.6.1 These provisions will only apply to employees who have been placed on the Rostered scale hours of work (clause 3.1.2 (b) refers).

5.6.2 Rostered employees are entitled to five weeks paid annual leave per annum, to be taken on days when the school is closed. After the five week entitlement is exhausted, rostered employees will continue to be on paid time off for the remainder of the days that the school is closed (unless they are on approved leave without pay, or planning, preparation or professional development).

5.6.3 Annual leave no longer applies, as employees in the above occupations will be on paid time off when their school is closed (unless they are on approved leave without pay, or planning, preparation or professional development).

5.6.4 The employer will endeavour to arrange matters at the school in such a way that any requirement under this section is not unreasonable. By prior arrangement the employee's own initiatives in undertaking work for the above purposes may be counted when applying this clause.

5.6.5 It is agreed that days when the school is not open for instruction shall constitute 'working days' for the purposes of 5.2.1 above.

5.6.6 Days when the school is not open for instruction (Closed School periods) cannot attract overtime or penal time, as such payments are only ever due for actual penal or overtime worked by Rostered employees during Open School periods. The salary payable during such Closed School periods will be at the average weekly earnings rate as calculated according to clause 4.13.2.

5.7 Parental Leave

5.7.1 Parental Leave will be granted in accordance with the provisions of the Parental Leave and Employment Protection Act 1987. The following is a guide to the four types of leave available to employees who qualify:

- Maternity leave for the mother of the child in one continuous period, not exceeding 14 weeks (without pay);
- Special leave totalling up to 10 days (without pay) for reasons connected with the pregnancy;
- Paternity leave up to 14 consecutive days (without pay) for the spouse or partner of the pregnant woman;
- Extended parental leave of up to 52 weeks (without pay) for either the mother or father of the child.

5.7.2 Employees intending to take extended parental leave are required to give at least 3 months notice in writing, supported by a doctor's certificate, confirming the pregnancy and expected date of delivery or in the event of an adoption, provide the employer with notice within 14 days of the employee receiving notice confirming the adoption.

5.7.3 The employer agrees to uphold the presumption in Part V of the Parental Leave and Employment Protection Act 1987 that an employee's position can be kept open during extended parental leave, except in exceptional circumstances.

Note: Clauses 5.7.1 to 5.7.3 summarise, but do not take the place of the Parental Leave and Employment Protection Act 1987. A copy of the Act and other associated material is also available on www.dol.govt.nz.

5.7.4 Ex-gratia Payment

Where an employee, who is entitled to parental leave of up to 12 months, returns to duty before or at the expiration of the leave and completes a further 6 months service, they qualify for a payment equivalent to 30 working days leave on pay, i.e. at the rate applying for the 30 working days immediately following their ceasing duty.

Provided that, if both male and female partners are employed in the School, or the employee's partner is employed in the State Sector, and are both eligible for payment, then they are entitled to 1 and only 1 payment, and they may choose (after they have qualified) who will receive it.

Any adjustments to the salary scale that are backdated into the period covered will apply.

An employee who is absent on parental leave for less than 6 weeks (30 working days) will receive that proportion of the payment that their absence represents in working days.

Any payment is to be based on the percentage rate of employment prior to absence on parental leave. However, a woman who works less than full normal hours for a short period only, prior to her commencing parental leave, may have her case for full payment considered by the employer.

5.8 Special Leave With or Without Pay

5.8.1 An employee may be granted special leave with or without pay. Placement on return from special leave without pay of more than 1 month is conditional on a suitable vacancy being available at the School, and grading cannot be guaranteed. An employee who cannot be placed in employment on return will be given 3 months' notice in writing that employment is to be terminated.

5.8.2 Examples of the type of leave that could be taken as special leave with or without pay at the employer's discretion:

Leave without pay to work for the PSA.

Leave without pay to accompany a partner on an overseas posting.

Study Leave - where the course of study is of value to the employer.

Outward Bound - paid leave and/or payment of fees.

Conferences and Conventions - paid leave may be granted to attend conferences and conventions of value to the employer.

Note: The employer will take into account the needs of the School and the employee in dealing with applications for study leave. In addition to leave for study, the employer may grant leave for examinations, reimburse course fees wholly or in part and assist with travel costs.

Note: Leave without pay interrupts but does not break service.

5.9 Sick Leave

5.9.1 The employer shall grant 10 working days sick leave per annum, with the first entitlement falling due on the date of appointment. Unused entitlement accumulates. No deduction from sick leave will be made for absences of less than 2 hours.

5.9.2 The employee intending to take sick leave must notify the employer as early as possible before the employee is due to start work or, if this is not practicable, as early as possible after that time.

5.9.3 The employer may decide that sick leave on pay of any special nature shall not be included in the aggregate of sick leave taken; but such leave is to be noted on the employee's leave record.

5.9.4 Where absence on sick leave, whether with or without pay, extends beyond three consecutive days, employees may be required to produce a medical certificate signed by a registered medical or dental practitioner stating the probable period of absence.

5.9.5 Where the employee absent on sick leave is suspected of being absent from duty without sufficient cause, the employee may be directed to submit to medical examination by a registered medical practitioner. The employer shall meet the employee's reasonable expenses in obtaining the medical certificate.

5.9.6 When sickness occurs during annual leave, the employer may permit the period of sickness to be debited against sick leave entitlement except where the sickness occurs during leave following termination of employment.

5.9.7 Rostered employees under clause 5.6 shall not have sick leave debited when the school is closed for instruction except where it occurs on a day specified for planning, preparation and professional development as per clause 3.1.2 (b) (iii).

5.9.8 The employer may permit employees to anticipate their next sick leave entitlement. Provided that the employee agrees the necessary adjustments will be made to final pay should an employee resign before the next entitlement falls due.

5.9.9 Accumulated sick leave as at the date of coming into force of this agreement will be retained by employees.

5.10 Sickness at Home

Employees may be granted leave on pay as a charge against their sick leave entitlement when the employee must be absent from work because their spouse, partner or a person who depends upon the employee for care, is sick or injured.

5.11 Retirement

5.11.1 Principle

The employer acknowledges the benefit of employees planning for their retirement. Prior to retirement, or as a transition to retirement, various options may be explored, taking into account the operational needs of the employer. Such options include working reduced hours, job sharing and/or gradual retirement.

5.11.2 Definition

Retirement is:

when an employee intends to make a permanent and voluntary change to their lifestyle by ceasing or significantly curtailing permanent paid employment; or when an employee intends to retire on the grounds of a medical condition and therefore intends to cease or significantly curtail permanent paid employment on this basis.

5.11.3 An employee may retire:

- voluntarily; or
- on medical grounds; or
- by agreement between the employer and employee.

5.12 Bereavement/Tangihanga Leave

5.12.1 An employee shall be granted special bereavement leave on full pay to discharge their obligations and/or pay their respects to a deceased person with whom they have had a close association. Such obligations may exist because of blood or family ties or because of particular cultural requirements such as attendance at all or part of a Tangihanga (or its equivalent).

5.12.2 In granting time off the employer must administer these provisions in a culturally sensitive manner taking into account:

- The closeness of the association between the employee and the deceased (Note: This association need not be a blood relationship);
- Whether the employee has to take significant responsibility for any or all of the arrangements to do with the ceremonies resulting from the death;
- The amount of time needed to discharge properly any responsibilities or obligations;
- Reasonable travelling time should be allowed, but for cases involving overseas travel that may not be the full period of travel;
- A decision must be made as quickly as possible so that the employee is given the maximum time possible to make any arrangements necessary. In most cases the necessary approval will be given immediately, but may be given retrospectively where necessary;
- If paid special leave is not appropriate then annual leave or leave without pay should be granted.
- The minimum requirements as per s70 of the Holidays Act 2003 (in summary 3 days for a family member; 1 day for a close associate).

5.13 Accident Leave

5.13.1 Accident leave is granted pursuant to the Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance Act 1992.

5.13.2 The employer will continue to pay employees who are absent from work due to a work related accident for up to 6 months from the date of the accident. Working days during the first week after the accident will be on special paid accident leave. Thereafter, one day of sick leave shall be deducted for each week of absence (to make up the difference between earnings related compensation and basic salary). Where there is no sick leave entitlement, the employer will grant special paid accident leave.

5.14 Jury Service and Witness Leave

5.14.1 An employee will be granted paid leave for jury service. Expenses may be retained by the employee but all juror's fees are to be paid to the employer unless an employee elects to take annual leave or leave without pay in which case the fees may be retained.

5.14.2 Witness Leave

- Where an employee is called as a witness in a private capacity for a criminal or traffic case up to 3 days paid leave may be granted.
- The employee is to recover fees and expenses from the party calling the witness, and repay the fees to the employer.
- Where an employee is called as a witness in a private capacity for other than a criminal or traffic case, annual leave or leave without pay may be granted. The employee is to pay any expenses incurred and is to retain such fees and expenses as may be awarded by the court.

5.15 First Aid Training

Employees required by the employer to attend a first aid training course shall be granted paid leave during work hours or time in lieu at the Employer's convenience, the employer is entitled to make arrangements for an employee to be granted paid leave during non-work hours, or outside work hours, if attending the course outside work hours. Course fees will be paid by the employer.

6.1 Higher Duties and Special Duties Allowance

6.1.1 Where an employee is required to undertake the full duties and responsibilities of a higher graded position for at least 5 consecutive working days and competently discharges these higher duties, she/he will be paid an allowance based on the difference between the salary of the employee acting in the position and the salary the employee would receive if appointed to the higher position.

6.1.2 Where only some of the duties and responsibilities of a higher graded position are undertaken, the allowance may be paid at a lesser rate.

6.1.3 Employees required to undertake a project or other duties in addition to their own job may be granted a special duties allowance.

6.2 Meal Allowance

Where an employee has been directed to work not less than 2 hours overtime after a meal break of at least half an hour, or where the return of an employee to the School is unduly delayed because of official duties, and the employee has had to buy a meal which would not otherwise have been bought, the employer will reimburse the cost of the meal on a fair and reasonable basis where receipts are provided.

6.3 Travelling Allowance

6.3.1 An employee required to travel within NZ on official business will be reimbursed the actual and reasonable cost of accommodation, meals and travel. Receipts will be required for amounts exceeding $10, or such higher limits determined by the employer.

6.3.2 In addition, an incidentals allowance of $7.65 per 24 hours or part thereof, will be paid for incidental expenses not otherwise recoverable. The period for payment is calculated from the time of departure from the School (or residence) to the time of return to headquarters (or residence).

6.3.3 When an employee leaves and returns to the School on the same day the employer may approve reimbursement of actual and reasonable expenses which would not otherwise have been incurred.

6.4 Motor Vehicle Allowance

Where the use of a private vehicle for official business has been agreed, the employee shall be paid an allowance of 59 cents per kilometre.

6.5 Reimbursement of Expenses Incurred in Caring for Dependents

When an employee is required to work unusual hours in an emergency situation or is required to work away from home to an extent not previously envisaged, the employer may approve the actual and reasonable cost of expenses incurred by employees in caring for dependents where the situation is such that an employee cannot make alternative arrangements for the care of his/her dependents without incurring extra expenses.

6.6 Service Allowance

Subject to conditions laid down by the employer service allowances shall be payable to employees as follows:

3 years but less than 4 years	839	0.402
4 years but less than 5 years	962	0.461
5 years but less than 6 years	1,086	0.520
6 years and over	1,181	0.565

Notes:

Periods of approved leave, with or without pay of less than 3 months duration, will be counted as periods of continuous service for the purposes of this provision. Any period of approved leave without pay in excess of 3 months will interrupt but not break the continuity of service.

Service allowance is paid during periods of annual leave, sick leave on pay, special leave on pay, retiring and long service leave etc; and increases the hourly rate for the purpose of calculating time related payments.

6.7 Camp Allowance

Employees attending camps or similar off-school activities will be paid an allowance of $20.00 per day.

7.1 Statement of the Parties

7.1.1 It is the intent and purpose of the parties to this Agreement to promote harmony and co-operation between the employer and its employees, and to provide effective procedures for the prompt and equitable resolution of disputes which may arise from time to time between the employer and any employee covered by this Agreement.

7.1.2 In accordance with the provisions of the Employment Relations Act 2000 the following procedures and services are available to the employer and employee for the resolution of all employment relationship problems.

7.2 Definitions

7.2.1 “Employment Relationship Problem” includes a personal grievance, a dispute and any other problem relating to, or arising out of, an employment relationship, but does not include any problem associated with the fixing of new terms and conditions of employment. An employment relationship problem may arise, (but is not limited to), when;

- a concern arises for an employee about any aspect of their employment or any action of their employer;
- a concern about an employee’s health and wellbeing arises for an employer;
- a complaint involving an employee is received by an employer;
- a concern involving employee conduct arises for an employer; or
- a concern involving employee competence arises for an employer.

7.2.2 “Personal Grievance” - An employee may have a personal grievance where:

- They have been dismissed without good reason, or the dismissal was not carried out properly;
- They have been treated unfairly;
- Their employment or a condition of their employment has been affected to their disadvantage by an unjustified action of their employer;
- They have experienced sexual or racial harassment, or have been discriminated against because of their involvement in a union or other employee organisation, or have suffered duress over membership or non-membership of a union or other employee organisation; or
- They have been discriminated against.

7.2.3 “Dispute” means a dispute about the interpretation, application or operation of an employment agreement (refer s129 Employment Relations Act 2000).

7.3 Resolving Employment Relationship Problems

7.3.1 Many employment relationship problems will be able to be resolved by discussion between the employer and the employee(s) concerned, without the need to take the matter any further. Wherever appropriate, employers and employees should seek to resolve employment relationship problems in this manner in the first instance.

7.3.2 If an employee believes they have an employment relationship problem then they should talk to their supervisor about it. They should tell him/her:

- there is a problem; and
- the nature of the problem; and
- what they want done about the problem.

If for any reason the employee feels unable to raise the matter with their supervisor the matter should be raised with the Principal.

7.3.3 The employee has the right to seek the support and assistance of the PSA at any stage of the process. The employer is entitled to seek advice and assistance from NZSTA or their adviser/representative of choice at any stage of the process.

7.3.4 Where the processes outlined above fail to resolve an employment relationship problem then;

- An employer may decide to initiate procedures in accordance with clause 8.1 or any other appropriate procedure considering the circumstance (i.e. competency procedures).

An employee may consider the procedures outlined in clause 7.4. in order to resolve the employment relationship problem.

7.4 Personal Grievances

7.4.1 A personal grievance must be raised with the employer within 90 days of the grievance occurring or coming to the employee's notice, whichever is the later. As with any employment relationship problem, the parties should always try to resolve a personal grievance through discussion in the first instance. A written submission is preferable but not necessary. Employees are entitled to have the PSA raise the grievance on their behalf.

7.4.2 If an employee believes they have a personal grievance based on discrimination, sexual or racial harassment, they may be able to make a complaint under the Human Rights Act 1993 to the Human Rights Commission. This is an alternative process as an employee cannot refer a personal grievance to both the Human Rights Commission and the Employment Relations Authority ("the Authority"). If in doubt advice should be sought before deciding.

7.4.3 If the problem cannot be resolved through discussion, then either party can request assistance from the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment, which may provide mediation services.

7.5 Other Services Available For Resolving Employment Relationship Problems

7.5.1 The Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE) Mediation Service is available at any time to help parties solve problems in a balanced and fair way. They may help by giving information about you're the parties rights and obligations or they may suggest a meeting between the parties or anything else that they think might help.

7.5.2 To help resolve employment relationship problems, MBIE provides:

An information service

This is free. It is available by contacting MBIE by phoning toll free 0800 20 90 20. The Ministry's Employment Relations Service internet address is <https://www.employment.govt.nz/>

Mediation Service

The Mediation Service is a free and independent service available through MBIE.

This service helps to resolve employment relationship problems and generally to promote the smooth conduct of employment relationships.

Mediation is a mutual problem solving process, with the aim of reaching an agreement, assisted by an independent third party.

If the parties can't reach a settlement they can ask the mediator, in writing, to make a final and binding decision.

A settlement reached through mediation and signed by the mediator at the request of the parties is final, binding and enforceable. Neither party can then take the matter any further and, either party can be made to comply with the agreed settlement by court order.

If the problem is unresolved through mediation either party may apply to have the matter dealt with by the Employment Relations Authority.

The Employment Relations Authority

This Authority is an investigative body that operates in an informal way. It looks into the facts and makes a decision on the merits of the case and not on the legal technicalities.

Either an employer or an employee can refer an unresolved employment relationship problem to the Authority by filing the appropriate forms.

The Authority may call evidence, hold investigative meetings, or interview anyone involved. It can direct the parties to try mediation. If mediation is unsuitable or has not resolved the problem, the Authority will make a decision that is binding on all parties. Any party can contest the Authority's decision through the Employment Court.

NB: In relation to a dispute about the interpretation, application, or operation of this Agreement the employer shall act, if the Secretary for Education acting under delegation from the State Services Commissioner so requires, together with or in consultation with the Secretary for Education.

Section 8: General Provisions

Special Residential Schools' Collective Agreement

Effective 28 February 2019 to 27 February 2021

We are making improvements to our Download to Print functionality, so if you want a printed copy of this agreement please download the PDF version of the Special Residential Schools' Collective Agreement.

8.1 Discipline and Dismissal

The following principles are to be followed when dealing with disciplinary matters:

The employee must be advised of their right to request union assistance and/or representation at any stage.

The employee must be advised of the specific matter(s) causing concern and a reasonable opportunity provided for the employee to state any reasons or explanations.

The employee must be advised of the corrective action required to amend their conduct and given a reasonable opportunity to do so.

Before any substantive disciplinary action is taken, an appropriate investigation is to be undertaken by management.

Depending upon the seriousness of the misconduct an oral warning should usually precede a written warning.

The process and results of any disciplinary action is to be recorded in writing, sighted and signed by the employee and placed on their personal file.

If the offence is sufficiently serious an employee is to be placed on suspension pending an investigation under (d).

An employee aggrieved by any action taken by an employer must be advised on their right to pursue a grievance in terms of the procedure set out in Section 7.

8.2 Notice of Termination

One month's notice of termination of employment should be given by either party but this may be varied by mutual agreement. An employee who has committed serious misconduct may be dismissed without notice.

8.3 Abandonment of Employment

Where an employee is absent from work for of three consecutive working days, without appropriate authorisation from the employer, the employee will be considered by the employer as having abandoned their employment, unless the employee is able to show that they were unable to fulfil their obligation to notify their employer through no fault of their own. The employer will make all reasonable efforts to contact the employee during the three day period of unnotified absence.

8.4 Restructuring and Surplus Staffing Provisions

The parties recognise the serious consequences that the loss of permanent employment can have on employees and propose to minimise this as far as possible by using the provisions of this agreement to keep as many employees as possible in suitable employment.

8.4.1 Prior to the formal commencement of any review which may affect PSA members in a School, the School will advise the PSA of the review and will provide the PSA with the opportunity to be involved in the review. The aim of this process is to explore all options before any final decisions are made by the School.

8.4.2 When, as a result of the review, the School requires a reduction in the number of employees, or employees can no longer be employed in their current position, the process for managing the change(s) follows:

8.4.3 In consultation with the PSA and affected members, reconfirmation may be offered, subject to the following criteria:

- the new job description is the same, or very nearly the same as the employee's current job description;
- the salary for the new position is the same;
- the new position has terms and conditions of employment, including career prospects, which are no less favourable;
- the new position is in the same location, or within reasonable commuting distance.

Where the above criteria are met and there is only one clear candidate for reconfirmation, that employee is to be reconfirmed. Where there is more than one clear candidate, the School will consult with the PSA to reach agreement regarding options for filling the available positions.

Where there are employees who meet the criteria for reconfirmation, those employees shall not have access to other options in this section (except for leave without pay) until all positions available for reconfirmation are filled.

8.4.4 Following reconfirmation, the School may, in consultation with the PSA and individual employees, offer reassignment to employees who have not been reconfirmed. Reassignment means placement in a position similar to that previously occupied, which the employee is prepared to accept. Where a reassignment is to a job with a lower salary, the employee's salary can be preserved by paying a lump sum based on the loss of basic salary over the next two years.

8.4.5 Any affected staff who have not been reconfirmed or reassigned into a position will be declared surplus. The School will advise the PSA of the names of surplus employees and the date by which the surplus needs to be discharged.

The School will consult with the PSA and individual employees to see if options other than severance are appropriate; these might include leave without pay, retraining or redeployment elsewhere in the state sector.

8.5 Severance Compensation:

8.5.1 For those employees appointed on or after 1 May 1996 severance compensation as follows will be paid:

7 weeks ordinary pay for the first year (or less) of continuous service; and

2 weeks ordinary pay for the second and subsequent years of continuous service with a maximum pay out of 32 weeks ordinary pay.

8.5.2 Definitions applying to clauses 8.5.1 above.

“Ordinary pay” is defined as basic taxable salary, plus regular taxable allowances paid on a continuous basis - i.e. during paid leave. In the case of employees on parental leave ordinary pay shall be the ordinary pay at the time of taking leave.

8.6 Technical Redundancy

8.6.1 Where an employee's employment is being terminated by the employer by reason of the sale or transfer by the employer of the whole or part of its business, nothing will require the employer to pay compensation for redundancy to the employee if the person or organisation acquiring the business or part being sold or transferred (“the new employer”):

has offered the employee employment; and has agreed to treat the service as if it were continuous service with that service or organisation; and the conditions of employment being offered to the employee by the new employer are substantially the same as, or more favourable than, the employee's conditions of employment including:
any service related and redundancy conditions; and any conditions relating to superannuation under the employment being terminated; and the offer of employment by the new employer is an offer to employ the employee in the business either:
in substantially the same, or in a similar capacity as that in which the employee was employed; or in a capacity that the employee is willing to accept; and that the employment remains in the local area, or is within reasonable commuting distance.

8.7 Employment Protection Provision

8.7.1 "Attention is drawn to Part 6A of the Employment Relations Act 2000 which provides certain protections to certain employee categories where the employer proposes to restructure its business so their work is to be performed by a new employer. Those relevant employees who may be covered by this agreement are those who provide cleaning services, food catering services, caretaking, or laundry services."

8.7.2 Where work undertaken by an employee (other than a relevant employee as described under (i) above) bound by this Agreement will be, or is likely to be, undertaken by a new employer, the employer will:

provide the new employer with details of the work currently performed by the employees concerned together with details of the terms and conditions of their employment; and seek a proposal for the employment of the affected employees by the new employer, including the terms and conditions upon which those employees would be offered employment by the new employer; and arrange to meet with the new employer for the purpose of negotiating on the proposal.

8.7.3 The following shall be matters for negotiation with the new employer in relation to employees affected by the restructuring:

The number and type of positions that will be offered by the new employer to employees affected by the restructuring;
The terms and conditions of employment to be offered to those employees (including whether the employees will transfer to the new employer on the same terms and conditions of employment);
The arrangements, if required, for the transfer of any accrued benefits and entitlements in relation to those employees;

8.7.4 Employees affected by the restructuring will have any entitlement determined by 8.4 and/or 8.5 of this agreement.

8.8 Sexual Harassment

8.8.1 Sexual Harassment, as defined in s108 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 and s62 of the Human Rights Act 1993, will not be tolerated at the School.

8.8.2 Employees who believe they have been subject to sexual harassment at the School have the choice of using the grievance process in this contract, or using the service of the Human Rights Commission.

Note: Copies of the Employment Relations Act and Human Rights Act are available via the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment via www.dol.govt.nz.

8.9 Eye Conservation

Where necessary, employees in the trades, technical and institutional areas shall be provided with safety spectacles. In cases of prolonged exposure to risk and where the employee normally wears prescription spectacles, the employer will reimburse the cost of prescription safety lenses in standard safety frames.

8.10 Keyboard and VDU Provisions

8.10.1 The School will abide by the provisions of the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment Approved Code of Practice for the use of Visual Display Units, published in October 1995.

8.10.2 Employees who are engaged on VDU duties for at least 50 percent of their normal working time shall be entitled to an eye test at School expense. The Joint Initiative Group may reconvene to discuss other matters of mutual interest prior to 2020, but only by mutual agreement between the three
